GOES WITH EMBARGO

Republicans Seek To Attain Reputation As Peace Party

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The final test of the peace that repelled the arms embargo put an end to the so-called political truce which has existed for the last two months.

Republicans are free to take a potshot at Democrats wherever they catch them. And New Dealers can return to their sport of gunning for the administration.

The brief truce gave both parties a chance to rest. But the truce is over. However, it was not a complete truce. It was only a truce.

Neither the Republicans nor the New Dealers will admit that the truce was a truce. They simply say that the truce was a truce.

Some Republicans are ready to take a potshot at Democrats wherever they catch them. And New Dealers can return to their sport of gunning for the administration.

LOST BOY BACK WITH MOTHER

While families of men searched for him, seven-year-old Bruce Crozier wandered into a huckleberry camp six days after he vanished in the rugged mountain wilderness of northern Arizona. Suffering from exhaustion, the boy was found in a hospital at Flagstaff, Ariz., with his mother, Mrs. R. E. Crozier, who said it was impossible to believe it was her son's body back.

CALIFORNIA AND OHIO GET MOST OF SPOTLIGHT

Opponents In Both States Contend Proposed Plans Unworkable

VIOLENCE IS FEARED

Police On Lookout In Philadelphia To Prevent 'Rough Stuff'

Here are some of the principal contests in today's "off-year" elections.

California—$30-a-year Thursday pension plan and proposal for state control of old-age pension plan.

Ohio—Old age pension plan. New York—Proposal for parimutuel betting at race tracks.

Kentucky—Governatorial election between Governor Keen Johnson, Democrat, and Circuit Judge King Swopes, Republican.

Philadelphia—Detroit, Cleveland and San Francisco—Mayoral elections.

Scattered city and state elections offered no clear-cut test on national issues today, but opponents on questions ranging from old age pensions to parimutuel betting robbed the "off-year" balloting of its usual lethargy.

Interest centered largely on old age pension proposals in California and Ohio. The California plan would give up to $50 a month to unemployed persons over 60 under a law similar to one enacted last year.

Payments would be made in state tax and a 10-cent stamp tax was attached every week.

The Ohio plan has been advocated by Herbert S. Biebel, Cincinnati clergyman. It calls for pensions, supplementing other income, to provide total payments of $50 a month to retired single persons over 60 and $30 monthly to couples. A state income tax and a 10-cent stamp tax was attached every week.

Agonizing campaigns were conducted in both states. Opponents have contended that the plans were unworkable and would be a burden on the state.

The ships consist of all but two of those used in transatlantic service by the United States lines. If the application is approved, they would be transferred to a Panamanian corporation, would fly the Panama flag, and would have no American citizens in their crews.

The proposed transfer would divorce the ships involved from any and all protection afforded by the United States flag, said a commission statement.

"Any favorable action would be taken by the maritime commission only upon the definite understanding that operations of the vessels in question can in no way involve the rights of diplomatic protection by the United States or be made the basis of any claim put forward by the government of the United States."

NINE AMERICAN SHIPS SEEK TO AVOID NEW LAW

Want To Transfer To Panamanian Registry And Continue Trips

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Secretary Hull expressed today his opposition to the transfer to Panamanian registry of United States lines ships, as impairing the integrity of the neutrality act.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The maritime commission withheld final approval today of a request to place nine American merchant ships under Panamanian registry so that they could escape the new neutrality law and continue voyages to Europe.

After commission sources had said yesterday afternoon that the United States lines' application for the transfer was granted, the commission held an evening meeting and announced at midnight that it was deferring action.

The ships consist of all but two of those used in transatlantic service by the United States lines. If the application is approved, they would be transferred to a Panamanian corporation, would fly the Panama flag, and would have no American citizens in their crews.

The proposed transfer would divorce the ships involved from any and all protection afforded by the United States flag, said a commission statement.

"Any favorable action would be taken by the maritime commission only upon the definite understanding that operations of the vessels in question can in no way involve the rights of diplomatic protection by the United States or be made the basis of any claim put forward by the government of the United States."

The commission explained that the ships could not carry any Americans either as passengers or crew in the combat areas defined by President Roosevelt. These extend eastward from midatlantic around the British Isles.

JUDGE LONG QUITS IN KANSAS CITY

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 7.—(AP)—David E. Long, presiding judge to the Jackson county court and key Tom Pendergast machine lieutenant at the courthouse, resigned today.

The county court is an administrative body. Long was indicted by a county grand jury on charges of misappropriating county funds to improve a building owned by his sons. He has been tried three times on counts in the indictment, one jury acquitting him, the others being unable to agree. Another trial was pending.

The resignation was the first development to bear on the Pendergast Democratic machine in the county since a federal-state drive struck the organization shattering blows early this year. Many Pendergast key men have lost out in the city and Boss Pendergast now is in the federal penitentiary serving 15 months for income tax evasion.

State Attorney General Roy McKitt announced the Long resignation in court and moved for dismissal of charges against the judge.

Senator From Monroe Says Such Talk Is 'Shenanigans'

Morrison also has stated that his parade, which includes some ten floats showing indicted members of the state administration in stripes, will immediately follow the Little Chicago parade through the business section of Monroe and West Monroe.

The parade will start in Little Chicago and proceed down DeSiard street to the old traffic bridge. The route includes a march through the business district of West Monroe and thence back to Monroe via the Louisville avenue bridge and out to 6th and Louisville where it will disband.

Four Long-Term Convicts Work At Fox Hunt Camp

By William T. Rives
CUT-AND-SHOOT TEX., Nov. 7.—(AP)—Miles inside the thicket and tall pine country of south Texas, where concealment would be simple, four convicts worked today at a fox hunt camp without a gun or a guard in sight.

Two handled long knives, one dangled automobile keys and the fourth had access to fast horses that know the timber land. But you couldn't pay those men to make a break.

They were servants in the Texas prison system camp at field trails of the Texas Fox and Wolf Hunters' association.

They came and went as they pleased. For years they had been behind prison walls and still have many years to serve. Unrestrained liberty would be sweet.

They are Paul Mitchell of Amarillo, a low-headed young man who twice at a last meal in the death cell; Earl Few of Fort Worth, a horse wrangler; O. J. Bills, who cooked three months for Governor W. Lee O'Daniel; and Carson Stump Wilson, former house boy for ex-Governor Jimmy Allred. The prison system furnishes servants for governors.

TRIMMED JURY FAILS TO MEET

Only Five Of Ten Remaining Members Appear For Duty

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Due to a lack of quorum the scheduled special meeting of the Orleans parish grand jury called for 10:30 a.m. today was postponed indefinitely.

Of the ten remaining members of the jury in good standing but four of the so-called "rebel" jurors and one "conservative" member appeared this morning to hear evidence of Attorney Matthew S. Braniff on charges District Attorney Neils F. Hertz had refused to accept.

Lacking a quorum of nine, the meeting was postponed. Braniff said he would seek an investigation of the alleged tax reduction assessment racket in New Orleans, and would ask the ten-member grand jury to investigate his charges of "squandering public funds for entertainment of friends" by Mayor Robert S. Maestri of New Orleans.

To Make Some Money

Everybody understands that railroads exist to provide transportation for the benefit of patrons, employment for the benefit of workers, purchasing power for the benefit of farmers, merchants and manufacturers, taxes for the benefit of governmental employes.

Amid this welter of confusing claims, let us never forget there is another benefit that lies at the foundation of all—the benefit which is conferred upon the railway owner as the result of being permitted to make some money.

Far, far too many railway owners are making no money today; some of them are lucky to keep their property out of the hands of the sheriff. Yet the investment represented in railway ownership is the one thing that provided the plant and stimulated the enterprise upon which all railway progress has been based.

Under private ownership the future of the railroads depends most closely upon adequate earnings—earnings that will maintain their credit and attract new capital for the further improvements that traffic will demand.

MOLE NOT REAL CANCER CAUSE

Only Grow Wildly When Subjected To Prolonged Irritation

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—(AP)—That unsightly mole on milady's neck was absolved today as a cause of cancer. Dr. Eugene F. Traub of New York told the American Academy of Dermatology and Syphilology such blemishes "rarely, if ever" terminate in cancer of the skin.

"All blood vessel birthmarks which are red to purple in color are only cosmetic deformities," he said. "The pigmented, dark brown, warty and hairy birthmarks are also relatively innocent.

"Only if subjected in some fashion to prolonged irritation are they apt to grow wildly,"

But skin growths that appear most innocent often are apt to cause the most trouble, Dr. Traub warned.

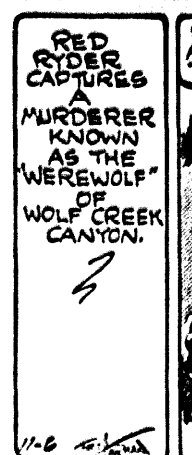

"The smooth, dark brown or dark blue marks, devoid of hair, are the ones that are most dangerous," he explained. "It is from this type that melanoma (serious skin cancer) often develops."

Dr. Traub said the type of the birthmark determines whether it can be removed safely. He counseled:

"Many of these blemishes may be readily and safely removed without leaving a scar. Some, however, are really dangerous and should be left alone or destroyed in a 'radical' manner (such as surgery)."

Dr. S. William Becker of Chicago told the academy that sailors, soldiers

KEY ISSUES IN NEXT CONGRESS SESSION TOLD

National Defense, Farm
Legislation And Trade
Pacts Mentioned

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—National defense, farm legislation and renewal of the reciprocal trade program were put forward today by some congressional leaders as key issues in the 1940 session.

The administration already has served notice that it would request an expanded defense program when Congress meets in January. The idea found quick support—and a measure of criticism—from members of both major parties.

Plans for a new system of agricultural banks, drought relief, and liberalized crop benefits were among the farm proposals.

The reciprocal trade law under fire in the senate during the special session was criticized today by Representative Martin of Massachusetts, the Republican house leader. He said he had been promised Democratic backing in an effort to terminate the act, expiring in June, under which the state department has negotiated trade treaties with a score of countries.

Before leaving the capital for home, Martin called the trade program an attempt to circumvent Congressional control over tariffs.

He said that house Republicans would be agreeable to voting for defense funds if they don't try to work in phone appropriations to try pumping money under that guise.

Congressional sources have said that the defense program would be financed by continued borrowing rather than by new taxes. There has been some talk of reducing other expenditures in order to prevent defense costs from sending the treasury to the red.

Senator Norris, Independent, Nebraska, an administration supporter, said he was not convinced that any action of the defense forces was necessary.

Mr. Dosch-Fleuret was born in Portland, Ore., the son of one of the small group of men who developed Oregon as a fruit-growing area. After he graduated from Harvard, he became a reporter on the Portland Oregonian and covered the land fraud trials and the famous San Francisco earthquake and fire. Later he worked in San Francisco on the Call and later still served on the Bulletin. He covered the Schmitz-Ruef graft trials and other important cases.

In 1939 he went to New York to try his luck as a free-lance magazine writer, breaking into Everybody's magazine, World's Work, Cosmopolitan, Munsey's and others.

When the World War broke out he left for Europe on the first boat under an assignment for World's Work. He had published many articles in this magazine dealing with the war and also covered the battles of the Marne and the Aisne.

When the end of the war came, he remained in Europe as a newspaper correspondent until the New York World was sold. He then became diplomatic correspondent for the Associated Press in Paris. A year ago he established a personal newspaper syndicate, "The European Background." A number of important American dailies use his weekly articles on world affairs.

He returned from Europe on last October and is well conversant with affairs as they exist there today.

Rubber type is in wide use today among commercial printers.

NEGRO REPUBLICAN LEADER IS KILLED

MOUND BAYOU, Miss., Nov. 7.—(AP)—Eugene P. Boose, negro Republican leader, ambushed and shot four times here last night as he was leaving his office, died early today in a Greenville hospital. His body was brought here for funeral services and interment.

Boose before his death blamed the shooting by unidentified persons on "political jealousy" in a local feud in this Mississippi town comprised wholly of negroes.

Several weeks ago a sister-in-law of Boose, Stella Montgomery, was shot and killed by peace officers in the home of Boose where she had taken refuge from officers looking for her. The officers claimed the woman threatened them with a butcher knife and resisted arrest.

Isn't This Why
You Are Constipated?

What do you eat for breakfast? Coffee, toast, maybe some eggs? What do you eat for lunch and dinner? White bread, meat, potatoes? It's little wonder you're constipated. You probably don't eat enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean the amount you eat. It's a kind of food that forms a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a movement. If this is your trouble, may we suggest a crunchy toasted cereal—Kellogg's All-Bran—for breakfast. All-Bran is a natural food, not a medicine—but it's particularly rich in "bulk." Being so, it can help you not only to get regular but to keep regular. You won't have to endure constipation, you can avoid it. Eat All-Bran daily, drink plenty of water, and life will be brighter for you! Made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

EVERYONE INVITED! SPEECHES! PARADE! FLOATS! BANNERS!

Pastor's Departure Tinged With Sadness

Rev. W. C. Scott Leaves Methodist Church
Here For Pastoral Place

The departure of Rev. W. C. Scott, pastor of the First Methodist church here, for a pastoral position at the University of the South, was tinged with sadness. The church members gathered for a service at 8 o'clock last night to bid him adieu. The service was held in the church sanctuary, which was filled with a large number of people. The pastor, who has served the church for many years, was given a warm and affectionate farewell. The service was conducted by Rev. J. H. Smith, who presided over the occasion. The pastor's departure is a loss to the church, but his new assignment is a great honor.

The Creeping Man

by Frances Shelley Wees

Chapter One The Missing Man

ALTHOUGH the woman in black seemed as calm and composed as ever, she had chosen the chair standing with its back to the light. The Police Commissioner eyed her thoughtfully as she spoke.

"You have then no further news of my husband?"

"No, I am sorry to say."

The tall, handsome man with the silver hair thrust his hand down on the table with an angry gesture.

"Would I send for you, then?" he demanded.

Commissioner Davies looked up at him and smiled. "Mr. Macpherson," he said, "I am very sorry to hear of your loss. I have done my best to find your husband, but I have not been successful yet."
